

I use my xm radio 95% of the time in my semi truck, I Listen to the country and the trucker channels most of the time. I go through northwestern Indiana and the Chicago areas everyday, with all the construction and destruction the traffic and weather stations come in handy each and every time i go through the area.

I would be very upset and lost if i couldn't get traffic and weather at the push of a button and instantly when i need it.